The history of this medicine cannot better be explained than by inserting the following letter:

San Francisco, July 2, 1872

My Dear Old Friend, Sammét Corwin;—I have no doubt but you will be much surprised on receiving this letter, out, perhaps, not more so, or more gratified, than I was to hear from you. The manner in which I heard from you, and learned of your whereabouts, is this: I happened to be looking over an Oregon paper and noticed your name, as representative ciect, from Tillamook county. The shall of pleasure which I experienced on reading is indescribable. The many acts of kindness which I received at your hands long years ago had never been forgotten, notwithstanding our correspondence has been broken for seventeein years. Well, Sam, I won't attempt to give you mare than the outlines of what has transpired with me since we fast corresponded. So many lust dents of the past, in which you and I were connected, crowd upon my mind that I cannot think or write of myself. Does your mind ever revert to the past, when we first me!—how you took me in as a parting, when those who should have been my best friends threse off on me—how we got snowed in and had to live on pounders straight for six weeks—how good that traily meal tasted—what a diagraceful return to made from our poor Innocent Jack, when those we take events of 1822 (requently furnish them for the present to give place to fat which will, perhaps, be of groater interest of you.

I pocketed eleven thousand dollars out of the Boy Calm' you gave me in Maraposa, and started for home in June, ISA. I invested tour thousand dollars in real estate in this city, and left it in care of Melanc, our old cabin mate. My properly here has yielded me a handsome income, and quadrupled in value. I went into this means in New York city, in which I was very successful—sold cut two years ago, since which time I have been traveling in European countries. You know I used to have a weakness for traveling—well, it has been gratified to my heart's content. While in France I was taken with the small-pox. The lady of the inm fold me that I was fortunate to take the disease at that place, as there was an old small-pox doctor near by who never falled to cure, no matter how bed the disease; and sure enough, I began to recover within four hours after commencing to take the medicine, and in twenty-four hours I felt quite well. I was so much elated with the magical effects of the medicine that I was determined. If possible, to obtain the formula, in which I succeeded, by paying handsomely and promising not to diverge it in France.

I see from Oregon papers that you have the disease among you. The enclosed package contains the formula and sufficient material for family use. I have eined all the cases that I have come in confact with, and find it an infallible cure and preventive. When you answer this I will forward sufficient of the malerial to make you in fartune, as I have airple, and rest assured I reciprocate past avery.

I will close for the present and await anxiously your answer. Orest to San Francisco, as I will remain here about two months.
